Overview

Adam has a broad practice, accepting instructions across the full range of Chambers' practice areas. He has worked on a range of commercial disputes, including in banking and finance, civil fraud, insolvency, arbitration, commercial litigation, and competition law, and he takes a particular interest in cases that engage multiple areas of commercial law.

Adam also advises (including as sole counsel) on issues arising in Chambers' core practice areas, having previously drafted advice on issues such as the scope of settlement agreements, liability under the Defective Premises Act, and claims involving allegations of fraud.

Examples of notable cases Adam has been involved in include:

- Skatteforvaltningen (The Danish Customs and Tax Administration) v MCML Ltd: Appeal to the Supreme Court on the scope of the doctrine of issue estoppel. The appeal arises out of one of the Danish tax authority's claims to recover sums wrongfully paid out as tax refunds. Assisted Jamie Goldsmith KC and KV Krishnaprasad (during pupillage).
- Credit Suisse Virtuoso SICAV-SIF and another v SoftBank: Recognised as one of The Lawyer's Top 20 Cases for 2025, this $440 million Commercial Court claim was brought under s.423 of the Insolvency Act 1986 and arises from the high-profile collapse of the Greensill Group. Assisted (during pupillage) Sonia Tolaney KC, Nehali Shah, Andrew McLeod, and Katherine Boucher.
- Premier League v Leicester City FC: CAS arbitration proceedings concerning the Premier League's jurisdiction to investigate and proceed against Leicester City FC for alleged breaches of the Premier League's profitability and sustainability rules. The Tribunal held that the English Football League had validly transferred responsibility for its investigation to the Premier League in June 2024, after Leicester City FC's promotion from the Championship. Assisted Conall Patton KC (during pupillage).

- Process & Industrial Developments Ltd v The Federal Republic of Nigeria: Appeal to the Supreme Court on the question of when a court should make an award of costs in a foreign currency, arising out of the high-profile decision of the High Court to overturn arbitration awards ordering Nigeria to pay US$6.6 billion in damages. Assisted Henry Hoskins (during pupillage).
