Overview

Henry Hoskins is described in the 2024 edition of Chambers & Partners as “the ideal junior”. He frequently acts in major, high-value international disputes, both in litigation and arbitration. These span a wide spectrum of commercial practice, and many are within the energy or banking and finance sectors, often involving allegations of fraud or other wrongdoing. Henry also regularly appears as an advocate in his own right.

Henry’s recent cases, a number of which have been featured in The Lawyer’s “Top 20” disputes for the relevant year, include:

- Fiesta Hotels and Resorts v Deutsche Bank [2024] EWHC 1422 Acted for Deutsche Bank (led by Sonia Tolaney KC and Alex Polley KC) resisting claims for c.€500 million for alleged misrepresentation relating to FX and interest rate derivatives.
