Barrister
Call 2019

Scope of Practice

• Arbitration • Banking and Financial Services • Commercial Litigation • Injunctions • Jurisdiction and Conflict of Laws • Group Litigation • Insolvency

Overview

Jade has a broad practice covering all areas of Chambers' work. She has worked on a range of commercial disputes including in areas such as banking, jurisdiction challenges, commercial litigation and arbitration. Jade has experience of working in counsel teams of various sizes and matters in her own right.

Recent and notable work includes:

- Municipio de Mariana & Ors v BHP Group (UK) Ltd (formerly BHP Group PLC) and BHP Group Ltd
  Acting (with Daniel Toledano KC, Shaheed Fatima KC, Victoria Windle KC, Nicholas Sloboda KC and others – instructed by Slaughter and May) for BHP in the high-profile group claim brought by c.700,000 claimants in relation to the collapse of the Fundão Dam in Brazil. The litigation has been repeatedly reported within The Lawyer's Top 20 cases. The 12-week first instance (TCC) trial of Stage 1 of the proceedings concluded in March 2025. Judgment of Mrs Justice O'Farrell is pending. Jade also acted for BHP in its jurisdiction challenge before the Court of Appeal
- [2024] EWHC 1643 (Ch)
  Acted (with Edmund Nourse KC, James Nadin and others – instructed by Eversheds Sutherland) for several UK water companies in group litigation concerning claims by c.100,000 claimants for restitution of over £150m for fees paid to the water companies for environmental searches purchased over a period of many years. The Claimants alleged that the water companies were obliged, under the Environmental Information Regulations 2004, to provide information contained in the environmental searches for free. In June 2024, judgment was handed down in Stage 1 of the proceedings, with the Court finding for the Defendants on the vast majority of Stage 1 issues. The claims settled shortly thereafter.
- Seiler & Ors v. The Financial Conduct Authority[2023] UKUT 133 (TCC)
  Acted (with Ben Strong KC – instructed by Mishcon de Reya LLP) for a manager of a Swiss private bank, in a successful reference to the Upper Tribunal of a decision of the FCA's Regulatory Decisions Committee (RDC) to impose a prohibition order on the basis of alleged lack of integrity.
- LCIA Proceedings (2024)
  Acted (with Charles Graham KC and Joshua Crow – instructed by Quinn Emanuel Urquart & Sullivan LLP) for the Respondent in resisting declaratory claims surrounding the termination of oil and gas production sharing contracts, and in a counterclaim for damages.
- LCIA Proceedings (2021)

Acted (with Charles Graham KC – instructed by Quinn Emanuel Urquart & Sullivan LLP) for the Claimant (energy major) in a dispute concerning a claim for breach of contract and duty of obligations to disclose information under a JVA with the Defendant's European subsidiary company. The claim centred around the Claimant's purchase of a multinational oil and gas exploration and production company for $5.5 billion, in circumstances where the Defendant was pursing an arbitration claim against the company in question for $8 billion.
