Jarret Huang

Barrister
Call 2023

Scope of Practice

• Arbitration • Banking and Financial Services • Civil Fraud and Investigations • Commercial Litigation • Company and Insolvency • Energy and Natural Resources • Sports Law • Group Litigation • Injunctive Relief

Overview

Jarret has a broad commercial practice across Chambers' profile, including banking and finance, commercial litigation, civil fraud, energy and mining, and arbitration. Having practised for several years in Singapore prior to coming to the English Bar, he has experience of litigation before the English, Singaporean, and Malaysian Courts at all levels, as well as of major ICC, LCIA, SIAC, and HKIAC arbitrations. Jarret has been instructed in a number of high-profile cases, including five of The Lawyer's "Top 20 Cases".

Jarret's work covers all of Chambers' core practice areas. Examples of recent cases include:

- Siccar Point (Cayman) Holdco I Limited v Ithaca Energy (UK) Limited: Claims arising out of the sale and purchase of a corporate group engaged in the estimated £3.3 billion exploration, development, and production of the Rosebank Field in the North Sea. The claim arises out of the Supreme Court's decision in ex parte Finch, and is the first case considering Finch's effects on existing contingent consideration arrangements. One of The Lawyer's "Top 20" cases of 2026. Instructed on behalf of Ithaca with Laurence Rabinowitz KC and Laurence Emmett KC.
- The Public Institution for Social Security ("PIFSS") v Al-Rajaan: Claims against c.45 defendants worth around US$1 billion arising out of the alleged payment of secret commissions, bribery, and money-laundering. One of The Lawyer's "Top 20" cases of 2025. Instructed on behalf of Union Bancaire Privée (a Swiss private bank) and members of the de Picciotto family with Tom Adam KC, Douglas Paine, and Rob Harris.
- Barry Maloney v Falcon VII Investments Sarl: Dispute over shareholder rights and exit provisions in the contractual arrangements underpinning a private equity fund's investment in a tech "unicorn" valued at around US$2 billion. One of The Lawyer's "Top 20" cases of 2025. Instructed on behalf of the defendant private equity fund with Lord (David) Wolfson KC and Joyce Arnold.
- Qatar Investment & Projects Development Holding Co WLL v Elanus Holdings Ltd: Contractual dispute between scions of the Qatari royal family over the ownership of the Idol's Eye diamond, a 70.21 carat diamond formerly owned by the last Sultan of the Ottoman Empire. One of The Lawyer's "Top 20" cases of 2024. Instructed on behalf of Elanus Holdings with Sa'ad Hossain KC and James Nadin.
- Confidential CPR 52.30 Proceedings: Confidential proceedings on behalf of a leading tech company to re-open a final appellate decision. These proceedings, which grappled with allegations of fraud, dishonesty, and other such misconduct, arose out of one of The Lawyer's "Top 20" cases and went towards whether the company in question could continue as a going concern. Instructed with, among others, Laurence Rabinowitz

KC, Niranjan Venkatesan KC, and Henry Hoskins.

- Set-aside Proceedings arising out of Suppipat v Narongdej: Proceedings before Singapore's apex court to set aside a US$700 million ICC award arising in connection with a long-running and multi-jurisdictional dispute between two UHNWIs over wind farm investments. Suppipat v Narongdej was one of The Lawyer's "Top 20" cases of 2022.

In addition to acting in commercial disputes, Jarret also advises (including as sole counsel) on a broad range of contexts. These have included "de-banking" arising out of economic sanctions, shareholder disputes (including potential unfair prejudice / shareholder oppression claims), litigation funding arrangements in a significant piece of English group litigation, and a potential investor-state dispute concerning a Southeast Asian state and a major African diamond mining entity. Jarret has also given expert advice on matters of English Law, on areas including sanctions, Sports Law, and contracts for the international sale and delivery of goods.

Jarret has a particular interest in cases concerning civil fraud, restitution, and shareholder disputes, having previously taught, litigated, and published in these fields. Between 2020-2022, Jarret taught at the Singapore Management University (including as Course Convenor for Company Law). In the 2022-2023 Academic Year, Jarret lectured at Trinity College and The Queen's College at Oxford University. Jarret's publications have been cited with approval by leading academics and in judgments by the High Court of Singapore.

One of The Lawyer's "Top 20" cases of 2026. Instructed on behalf of Ithaca with Laurence Rabinowitz KC and Laurence Emmett KC.

Jarret also has advised extensively on energy and mining-related disputes. Examples of Jarret's advisory work includes advice to an oil major on expert determinations arising out of the decommissioning of various North Sea platforms, advice to a Singaporean oil and gas freight entity on Russian sanctions, and advice to an entity engaged in exploration and storage on minimum lifting quantities under a terminal facility agreement. Jarret has also provided advice on green energy and renewable projects, including a major windfarm development and on a supply agreement for the production of biofuels.

Jarret also has a keen interest in climate change litigation, and has contributed to an Opinion by the Commonwealth Climate Law Initiative on the ambit and limits of director liability arising out of climate change concerns. Jarret's contributions to the Opinion were described by the authoring silk as being of "an exceptional standard".

Sports Law

- Confidential CAS Matter: Jarret has been instructed to act as an expert witness on English Law for a Russian Champions League football club in proceedings worth several million Euros before the Court of Arbitration for Sport ("CAS") against a leading English football club and FIFA. The scope of work has included allegations of bad faith, inconsistent application of FIFA statutes, and seeking to set aside a decision of the FIFA Dispute Resolution Chamber. Instructed unled against an English silk.

- Formula 1 Racing Claim: Jarret has also advised in writing on the merits of a Formula 1 racing claim arising out of alleged misconduct and conspiracy on the part of, inter alia, senior individuals in the FIA.

Prior to commencing practice at the English Bar, Jarret was the lead Prosecutor in relation to an appeal by one of Singapore's most prolific match-fixers in challenging his conviction and sentence for corruptly offering gratification to match officials in relation to regional cup matches. The appeal was ultimately unsuccessful. Jarret has also prosecuted various sports gambling / betting offences in Singapore. Jarret has also been invited to judge at the LawinSport Sports Law Arbitration Moot.

Group Litigation

- Municipio de Mariana v BHP Group: The largest ever group litigation brought in the English Courts, concerning the collapse of the Fundao tailings dam at the Samarco Mariana Mining Complex in Brazil. The claims are valued at c. £33 billion and involve around 600,000 individual claimants. One of The Lawyer's "Top 20" cases of 2024. Assisting, among others, Dan Toledano KC and Nick Sloboda KC, for BHP.

- Ok Tedi Fly River Development Foundation Ltd v Ok Tedi Mining Ltd: A representative action before the Singapore Courts by 150,000 affected claimants arising out of the discharge of two billion tonnes of untreated mining waste from the Ok Tedi Mine. The total value of the claims was estimated at US$1.5 billion before a substantial proportion of the claims were struck out because, among other things, they were inappropriate for the Court's representative jurisdiction.

- Confidential Claim: Confidential claims valued at c. US$400m arising out of the alleged fraud and breach of fiduciary duties by various directors and managers of a Real Estate Investment Trust. The claims are being pursued in, inter alia, deceit, ss.90 and 90A of FSMA 2000, and misrepresentation. Instructed on behalf of the Claimants with Seb Isaac KC and Veena Srirangam.

Injunctions and Interim Applications

- Confidential Commercial Court Proceedings: Instructed to resist injunctive relief sought by the seller in an M&A transaction on grounds that certain regulatory conditions necessitated as conditions precedent had not been satisfied. Instructed for the purchaser with Sonia Tolaney KC and Adam Rushworth.

- BNP Paribas SA v VietJet Aviation Joint Stock Co: Expedited hearing of a claim for an anti-suit injunction ("ASI") in relation to proceedings brought in Vietnam. The grounds on which anti-suit relief was sought included an exclusive jurisdiction clause in an aircraft financing agreement in favour of England, various other contractual provisions, and the "quasi-contractual" basis for anti-suit relief. Instructed for BNP Paribas, the successful ASI claimant, with Conall Patton KC.

- Playtech Services Malta Limited v Tecnologia en Entretenimiento Caliplay: A claim for an ASI against Mexican and US parties in relation to proceedings brought in Mexico arising out of a dispute between two online gaming / betting companies. The claim is noteworthy for the extensive ancillary relief sought beyond an ordinary ASI. Assisted Orlando Gledhill KC and Mehdi Baiou, for the ASI Claimant.

- Civiello v Brodahl: A claim for a worldwide freezing order and other relief against a judgment debtor who had not paid a foreign judgment debt. The claim involved complex questions as to the application of the Lugano Convention, and the proper application of the Court's discretion to grant worldwide (as opposed to domestic) freezing relief. Acted for the successful injunction defendant.

Jarret also has extensive evidence of urgent worldwide Mareva (freezing) injunctions before the Singapore Courts, notably including in a case concerning freezing relief sought by a Russian bank against a former Russian Government Minister (who was formerly Chairman of the board of Russia's largest engineering company). Jarret also worked on the subsequent applications for fortification in the same set of proceedings.
