Call 2021

Scope of Practice

• Arbitration • Banking and Financial Services • Commercial Litigation • Civil Fraud • Group Litigation • Jurisdiction and Conflict of Laws

Overview

Joe completed his pupillage at One Essex Court in September 2022 and is building a broad commercial practice across all areas of Chambers' work. His practice covers the full range of commercial litigation, arbitration and advisory work. He is comfortable working in counsel teams of various sizes or alone and has appeared as sole counsel in the County Court.

Joe's current and recent instructions include:

- NMC Group v (1) Dubai Islamic Bank (2) Noor Bank

Acting for Dubai Islamic Bank and Noor Bank in a $400m dispute in the Abu Dhabi Global Markets Courts arising from the NMC Healthcare fraud.

- S.90 FSMA Proceedings

Acting for various institutional investors in claims arising out of alleged misstatements and omissions from the defendant's prospectuses.

And as sole counsel:

- Tallat v Sopra Steria Limited

Successfully defending a provider of biometric services against claims that it had wrongly charged the Claimant.

- Thomas v Story Homes

Defending a property developer against claims that its building work was defective. The case settled before trial.

- Thomson Reuters v Optima Law

Acting on behalf of the defendant to a claim in respect of the defendant's alleged failure to pay a subscription fee. Joe conducted the advocacy at trial.
