Overview

Katherine has a broad commercial litigation and arbitration practice encompassing civil fraud, banking, finance and cryptoasset disputes. She is comfortable working in counsel teams or alone and has appeared as sole counsel in the High Court and County Courts.

Katherine is experienced in cross-jurisdictional litigation, being instructed in cases in the ADGM and before international arbitration tribunals, including the LCIA and the ICC. A large part of Katherine's work involves civil fraud. She is currently instructed in BNP Paribas Trust Corporation v Uro Property Holdings, acting for the Defendant in proceedings involving £250million allegedly due under a suite of financing documents, as well as Various Claimants v Serco Group Plc [2023] EWHC 119 (Ch), a claim under s.90A of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 for the publication of misleading information and one of The Lawyer's Top 20 cases of 2024. She was also instructed in NMC Healthcare v Dubai Islamic Bank [2023] ADGMCFI 0017 and ADGMCFI 0020 representing Dubai Islamic Bank in a large finance dispute involving complex fraud claims.

Katherine holds a first class degree from Jesus College, Cambridge and received a number of academic scholarships and awards for academic performance. After leaving Cambridge, Katherine converted to law at City, University of London, where she was invited back as a Visiting Lecturer to teach public law and received top scholarships from Gray's Inn.
