Scope of Practice

• Commercial Litigation • Employment • Public Law • Insurance and Reinsurance • Professional Liability

Overview

Lauren practises across the full spectrum of commercial disputes. In addition to her commercial work, Lauren acts in employment and public law matters, and has a particular interest in cases that sit at the intersection of these areas.

Lauren is ranked as a “Rising Star” in both civil fraud and employment law in the Legal 500, where she has been described as “a bright, articulate, and extremely capable junior, with a razor-sharp forensic mind” and “an asset to any counsel team”.

Lauren’s current and recent instructions include:

- Crane Bank and others v dfcu Bank and others (one of The Lawyer’s “Top 20 Cases” of 2026): acting for the claimants (with Hannah Brown KC, David Caplan, and Ben Zelenka Martin) in a high-value Commercial Court conspiracy claim in which it is alleged that several defendants conspired with the Bank of Uganda in order to procure the “resolution” and sale at an undervalue of the assets and liabilities of one of Uganda’s leading financial institutions.
- Hayes v Pack and others [2025] EWHC 402 (KB): acting for the Liberal Democrats in a dispute with a former senior member (led by Richard Mott).
- Flowcrete UK Ltd and others v Vebro Polymers UK Ltd and others (2023): acted for the claimants (led by Timothy Killen) in a claim for breach of confidence and unlawful means conspiracy relating to the alleged taking of confidential information by a competitor in the industrial and construction chemicals industry.

- A fintech company v former employees (ongoing): acting for the claimant (led by Diya Sen Gupta KC) in a claim against former employees for the misuse of confidential information.
- UK Covid-19 Inquiry: instructed as junior Counsel to the Inquiry, chaired by Baroness Heather Hallett DBE.

Lauren is a member of the Attorney General's C Panel of Counsel.

Lauren is a former Visiting Lecturer in Contract Law at City, University of London. She was awarded the Inner Temple's Princess Royal Scholarship (the Inn's top award) for the law conversion, as well as scholarships from COMBAR and City Law School. For the Bar course, Lauren was awarded a Major Scholarship by the Inner Temple and a further scholarship from City Law School. Lauren subsequently won the Jarman Prize for ranking 1st out of 72 pupils in the Inner Temple Pupils' Advocacy Prize 2021.

Before coming to the Bar, Lauren worked for some of the West End's leading commercial theatre producers.
