Overview

Niranjan is a leading silk specialising in commercial litigation and civil fraud. He was rapidly elevated to silk (at only 10 years' call) and is described in the latest legal directories as "an exceptional advocate" and a "highly sought-after commercial silk". He acts as the lead advocate in high-value disputes in the English courts and is known for his ability to find creative solutions in difficult cases. He is often brought into appeals, not having appeared below and has extensive appellate experience, having appeared eight times in the Supreme Court and on many occasions in the Court of Appeal. His recent advocacy in the Court of Appeal can be viewed and .

Niranjan has a particular interest in civil fraud and related areas (including claims under section 423 of the Insolvency Act 1986, in which he has particular expertise). Before coming to the Bar, he read and taught law at Oxford, where he was a Vinerian, Eldon and Rhodes Scholar. He is also called to the Indian Bar and able to advise on matters of Indian (commercial) law.

Recent work includes:

Salinas Pliego v Astor Asset Management 3 Ltd , : Acting for the defendants in this c.US$300m fraud claim that has already given rise to important judgments dealing with complex questions of law concerning abuse of process by 'privilege hunting'.

Invest Bank PSC v. El-Husseini: Acted for the successful defendants in a c. £20m claim in the Commercial Court under section 423 of the Insolvency Act 1986. The claim was dismissed in its entirety by Calver J: [2024] EWHC 2976 (Comm) and gave rise to numerous substantive interlocutory skirmishes, including a trial of Preliminary Issues: ; Disclosure ; amendments and limitation ; and relief from sanctions Gormsen v Meta , : Acting for the Class Representative in this landmark class action against Meta. Successful in the Court of Appeal in July 2026 in an appeal concerning whether "Wrotham Park" or "user" damages are available for an infringement of the Chapter II prohibition in the Competition Act 1998.

Soprim v DP World: Acting for DP World in defending a claim by Soprim for a charging order over a sum of c.US$40m. The case raises important questions of law concerning (among other things) the recognition of foreign judgments and the service of arbitration claim forms. See , (application for permission to appeal pending).

AAA v BBB: Acted for the successful non-cause of action defendants in a complex case with international elements. The freezing order was discharged with indemnity costs; and the case raised important points of law concerning the service of arbitration claim forms and the duty of full and frank disclosure.

TAQA Bratani Ltd v. Fujairah Oil and Gas UK LLC: Acting for the Claimants in the Commercial Court and the Court of Appeal in a claim under sections 238 and 423 of the Insolvency Act 1986 arising out of an oil and gas joint venture. The Court of Appeal allowed the Claimants' appeal in December 2025: see
