Overview

Patrick specialises in company law, insolvency and commercial fraud. Patrick regularly acts on substantial shareholder disputes and restructurings with recent cases including the Petropavlovsk plc litigation, a board dispute relating to the $1.4bn UK listed Russian gold mining company, the Tonstate Group litigation, relating to the owner of hotels worth in excess of £500 million, and the Arcadia (Topshop/Topman) and Regis (Supercuts) CVAs.

Patrick has been involved in some of the largest civil fraud claims in recent years including the $2 billion LIA v Societe Generale litigation, involving allegations of bribery and undue influence and the JSC Mezhdunarodniy Promyshlenniy Bank v Pugachev litigation on applications for £1.17 billion freezing orders, search orders, passport orders and committal applications.

Patrick's cases often involve an international element and applications for pre-emptive and interlocutory relief including freezing orders, Norwich Pharmacal orders and other interim injunctions.

Patrick's recent cases include:

- Bridgehouse (Bradford No. 2) Limited v BAE Systems Plc (recent judgments include: [2020] EWCA Civ 759, [2019] B.C.C. 1127, [2019] Bus. L.R. 1302, [2018] EWHC 3719 (Comm), [2018] 10 WLUK 793): Patrick acted for BAE Systems plc on this substantial case relating to the termination of a £93million commercial property forward sale and purchase contract. The case has generated a significant number of claims, applications and appeals and has led to multiple significant judgments including what is now the leading Court of Appeal decision on arbitrability ([2020] EWCA Civ 759) and Cockerill J's decision on a s.69 Appeal which has general importance for the effect on contractual rights to terminate of a company's restoration ([2019] BCC 1127).

- Petropavlovsk plc: Patrick acted for UGC, a large Russian gold mining company, which held approximately 25% of the shares of Petropavlovsk plc, a $1.4bn Russian gold mining company listed on the LSE. UGC's claim raised issues of the validity of the appointment of directors, the exercise of powers for an improper purpose and compliance with the Corporate Governance Code.
- Tonstate Group Limited v Wojakovski, Wojakovski v Matyas [2019] EWHC 857 (Ch), [2019] 2 B.C.L.C. 574: Patrick (with Neil Kitchener QC and Alexander Brown) was instructed by the managing director of the Tonstate Group, a substantial property development group which owned Hilton Hotels in London, Birmingham and Cardiff, worth over £500 million. Patrick's client was accused by the other shareholders in the Group of fraud and of breaches of fiduciary duty. Patrick was initially instructed, at short notice, to oppose an application for a worldwide freezing order in support of a proposed derivative action. Having successfully opposed that application, Patrick acted on a number of related claims including an unfair prejudice petition, a derivative claim and fraudulent misrepresentation and undue influence claims.

Examples of Recent Cases

- Paylor & Penn v Skeene, Bowers and the Director of the SFO [2020] 2 WLUK 261
Patrick is instructed on this £30 million fraud claim relating to apparently fictitious investments in teak plantations in Brazil and foreign exchange. The claim has raised a range of complex issues given the multiple jurisdictions involved (including the UAE, Belize and Panama) and, further, has involved seeking relief against the SFO to obtain documents seized by the SFO from the alleged fraudsters. Patrick recently successfully obtained judgment for £12.5 million, refuting various arguments relating to privilege, the right to silence and concurrent criminal and civil proceedings.
- Willmott v Kimchi
Patrick is instructed (leading Emma Williams) on this claim relating to the misappropriation of £3.9 million of cryptocurrency. Patrick and Emma successfully obtained an ex parte freezing order, along with ancillary disclosure orders. The case is one of the first where freezing orders and proprietary claims in relation to Bitcoin have been considered.
- The Libyan Investment Authority v Societe Generale SA
Patrick was instructed by the Fifth Defendant in this $2 billion fraud claim. Beyond being one of the largest claims recently litigated in this jurisdiction, the claim raised complex legal issues including issues as to the law of bribery and dishonest assistance, the capacity of a foreign state entity and complex conflict of laws issues. The Libyan Investment Authority ultimately discontinued its claim against Patrick's client.
- JSC Mezhdunarodniy Promyshlenniy Bank v Pugachev (various judgments including: [2015] EWCA Civ 906, [2015] EWHC 2623 (Ch), [2014] EWHC 4336 (Ch))
Acting for the liquidator of what was formerly one of Russia's largest privately owned banks on its claims against one of its founders, Sergei Pugachev, under, among other things, the Cross Border Insolvency Regulations 2006. Among other things: successfully obtaining the continuation of a US $2 billion freezing order under s.25 of the Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments Act 1982 in support of Russian proceedings; and successfully acting on an ex parte appeal against a Judge's refusal to grant a Chabra freezing order – the Order was granted by the Court of Appeal and continued on the return date (with Stephen Smith QC and Ben Griffiths).
- Jackson v Feeney [2016] EWCA Civ 479
Patrick acted as sole counsel for the appellant on this appeal involving issues as to a party's right to be heard, debarring orders and the granting of declarations. In the face of the appeal, the Respondent discontinued the underlying proceedings.

- Edgeworth Capital Luxembourg SARL v Maud [2015] EWHC 3464 (Comm) & [2015] EWHC 2364 (Comm)
Acting (with Peter Arden QC) for Glenn Maud (a high-profile property Tycoon) in proceedings concerning the fate of the property in Madrid which houses Santander's global headquarters and is estimated to be worth at least €3 billion.
- Re Guidezone Limited (Lawtel AC0147346)
Successfully acting for the respondents to an unfair prejudice petition on a 5 week trial of a preliminary issue (with Lance Ashworth QC).
- Re Guidezone Limited [2014] 1 WLR 3728
Appearing (as sole advocate) on the first in-time application for an extension of time post-Mitchell against a team of a senior silk and a junior; the application was allowed by Nugee J for reasons which were "essentially those advanced by Mr Harty in his able and well argued submissions".
- The Mediterranean Insurance & Reinsurance Company v Collins
Acting as sole counsel for the Liquidators of an insurance and reinsurance company on a claim for breach of fiduciary duty through check fraud. Patrick was instructed from the start of proceedings and obtained an initial freezing injunction for over £2 million followed by judgment for £10.5 million and a post-judgment freezing order.
- Sehgal v Sehgal
Acting for the Petitioners on this substantial unfair prejudice petition concerning a company and connected partnership which operate a number of care homes worth several million pounds. The case involved allegations of shams agreements, allegedly entered into to defraud HMRC, along with allegations of breach of fiduciary duty and exclusion from the running of the business.
- Intellimedia Systems Limited v Richards
Acting for the Defendants on a claim for breach of fiduciary duty relating to an internet protocol TV business and responding to urgent interim applications for the appointment of a receiver and freezing order type relief. The application was ultimately withdrawn.
- Pourghazi v Kamyab (Court of Appeal) [2015] EWCA Civ 562
Acting for the respondent to an appeal and obtaining an order that, unless the appellant paid £950,000 (the part of the judgment which was not subject to the appeal) to the respondent, the appeal would be struck out.
- Pourghazi v Kamyab (Lawtel AC0143106)
Acting for the claimant on a 4 day trial of fraudulent misrepresentation claims; the claim was successful and the defendant was ordered to pay £1.3m and costs on the indemnity basis.
- Interactive Technology Corporation Limited v Ferster
Acting for a company on claims against one of its directors to set aside a purported sale of the Company's assets and claims for breach of fiduciary duty (with Richard Snowden QC and Nigel Dougherty).
- Re South Pacific Oil Limited (Western Pacific Court of Appeal)
Acting for the former managing director of, and a minority shareholder in, an oil company worth over £100m on an unfair prejudice petition and defending a claim for breach of fiduciary duty. Patrick was called on an ad hoc basis to the bar of the Solomon Islands and appeared in the Western Pacific Court of Appeal.
- Hawkins v Atex Group Limited

Acting for the former CEO of a digital media company on both an unfair prejudice petition and claims against him for breach of fiduciary duty and breach of his contract of employment (with David Chivers QC).

- Moussavi v Zaero-Polo

Acting for the defendant to a claim for the specific performance of a demerger agreement arising out of the divorce of two architects.

- Anglo European Studbook Limited

Acting for a company on a claim to set aside a purported sale of the entirety of the company's business by its former managing director; Patrick sought and obtained interim injunctions and unless orders, ultimately leading to the defendants being debarred from defending and judgment being given in favour of the claimant company with indemnity costs.

- J & W Sanderson Limited v Fenox (UK) Limited

Acting for a 50% shareholder in a UK company which owned 42% of a car factory in Minsk, Belarus, worth approximately $20m. Patrick obtained an interim injunction preventing the holding of meetings of the company's board of directors and restraining the defendants from purporting to act as the company's directors.

- Re Candeo Technologies Limited

Acting for the respondents to an unfair prejudice petition in respect of a tech company (with James Potts QC).

- Westminster Group plc v Johnsons

Successfully opposing the enforcement of an expert determination pursuant to a share purchase agreement.

- Sira v Thornhurst Properties Limited (Lawtel AC9701012)

Acting for the defendant on an application for summary judgment. The Judge praised Patrick's "admirable skeleton argument" and paid tribute to the way that he had got on top of the complex legal arguments.

Corporate

- Companies House matters, including:

- Rectification of the register of members
- Registration of charges
- Restoration to the register

- Company meetings

- Construction and drafting of constitutional documents

- Disclosure and Transparency Rules
