Call 2017

Scope of Practice

• Arbitration • Banking and Financial Services • Civil Fraud and Investigations • Commercial Litigation • Competition • Energy and Natural Resources • Group Litigation • Public Law • Jurisdiction and Conflict of Laws

Overview

Veena is recommended as a Leading Junior in commercial litigation, commercial dispute resolution, banking and finance and group litigation. She is described in Chambers and Partners 2026 as "so clever and so thorough about the way she approaches a case" and in Legal 500 2026 as having "an exceptionally astute legal mind and a sharp instinct for case strategy". In previous editions, she was praised for her ability to "turn her hand to anything" and for her legal knowledge: "If you need to know an answer to a particularly tricky legal point Veena will deliver it."

Veena is regularly instructed in complex and high-value commercial disputes. Veena's recent instructions include acting for BHP in Municipio de Mariana v BHP Group (UK) Ltd (one of The Lawyer's top cases for 2020, 2022 and 2024), for Dyson in claims arising from its supply chain, for INEOS in breach of warranty claims and for Mastercard in interchange fee litigation. Alongside cases where she acts as part of a counsel team, Veena regularly acts as sole counsel especially for financial institutions.

Before coming to the Bar, Veena taught Administrative Law at Cambridge University and has a particular interest in cases raising public law issues. Veena maintains an active interest in academic law and her work has been published in leading journals including the Law Quarterly Review, the Journal of Private International Law and Civil Justice Quarterly.

Veena's recent and notable instructions include:

Municipio de Mariana & Ors v BHP Group Plc and BHP Group Ltd: Acting (with Daniel Toledano KC, Shaheed Fatima KC, Nicholas Sloboda KC and Victoria Windle KC) for BHP in the group action brought by over 600,000 claimants arising from the collapse of the Fundão Dam in Brazil.
